

COLFAX COUNTY EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION SYSTEM INFORMATION & ENROLLMENT FORM

September 24, 2015

The Village of Cimarron is joining the Colfax County Emergency Management, Emergency Notification System to improve communications to the community on water and wastewater shut downs/breaks and other various emergency situations. Anyone can enroll for this service within the Colfax County area. The Colfax County Emergency Notification System, currently provided by Code Red, is a contract service that allows authorized government officials to create and distribute appropriate public information quickly and efficiently to the citizens, businesses and employees of Colfax County and its respective municipalities. The system can be used to send emergency or appropriate non-emergency messages generated by the area municipal and county government agencies to local businesses and residents. Information can be provided regarding emergency notifications and warnings throughout the community or to specifically targeted geographic regions or lists of individuals. Every effort shall be made to keep the messages brief and professional.

Examples of Uses: The following are examples of safety situations in which time-sensitive emergency dispatches might be implemented.

- Local severe weather conditions (tornadoes, blizzards, etc.)
- Natural disasters (extended power outages, floods, etc.)
- Terrorism threats
- Hostage situation
- Amber Alerts/Missing persons
- Imminent danger from a fire
- Haz-Mat incidents
- Bomb threats
- Boil/contamination alerts
- Gas leaks
- Water main breaks, sewer back-ups
- Temporary water shut-off
- Shelter openings
- Community emergency management activation
- Other emergencies not otherwise specified

Code Red Database

Authorized users can create a message and send a call to a number of people at up to two phone numbers, one email address and SMS (text message) number. This database is created and maintained in two ways:

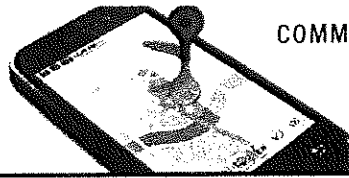

- Code Red obtains the information from telephone service providers.
- Local residents provide their information directly through the opt in the Code Red system. Link is: <https://public.coderedweb.com/CNE/6AF053DCB942>
- Information is entered by data gathered from Colfax County Government and the various municipalities in the county.

The Code Red database is not to be shared with any other business or vendor, and individuals can opt out of the database upon request. The Colfax County Office of Emergency Management (OEM) is responsible for processing local requests from citizens that wish to be part of, or to opt out of, the Colfax County Emergency Notification System.
